Common Ordinance for One Year (Two semesters) Diploma (including 6 months Certificate course) PG Diploma/Advanced PG Diploma courses (except weekend programme)

{Unless otherwise specified in any other relevant Ordinance, this Ordinance will be applicable to all courses of 1 year duration}

1. The duration of the course shall be one academic year, divided into two semesters. The examination for the first semester shall ordinarily be held in the months of December/January and for the second in the month of May/June or on such dates as may be notified by the Controller of Examinations. A supplementary examination for 1st and 2nd semesters shall be held alongwith their regular 1st and 2nd semester examinations simultaneously after every six months.
2. The examination schedule containing the dates of receipt of examination forms with and without late fee shall be notified by the Controller of Examinations from time to time.
3. A person who has fulfilled the minimum prescribed eligibility conditions as mentioned in the Admission Brochure/Prospectus shall be eligible for admission. The detailed eligibility conditions e.g. percentage of marks in the qualifying examination subject(s) combination etc. shall be notified in the Admission Brochure as approved by the University from time to time.
The student seeking admission in the Diploma Course wherein Certificate Course is its inherent component as per its Scheme Of Examination shall have exit option for which the University shall award the Certificate. In case, the student continues the course for 1 year, he/she shall be awarded the Diploma.
4. Every candidate shall be examined in the subject(s) as laid down in the syllabus and scheme of examination prescribed by the Academic Council from time to time. The fail/re-appear candidates will also appear in the exam as per syllabus applicable to regular students of that semester.
5. Internal Assessment marks:-
  - (a) 20% Internal Assessment/Sessional marks should be supplied by the Head/Principal of the Department/College/Institute within 30 days of the commencement of the examinations.
  - (b) Thereafter, a penalty/late fee of Rs.100/- per student per subject shall be levied upon the concerned Department/ Colleges/Institute upto 10 days from the expiry of period of 30 days of the commencement of the examinations. This penalty/late fee shall not be charged from the student by the Department/College/Institute.
  - (c) If still, internal assessment/sessional marks are not supplied by the Department/College/Institute, then the result of the candidate(s) shall be declared by proportionating the marks of concerned theory paper in which he/she has been declared as pass. Marks of candidates having re-appear shall not be proportionate in this case.
6. External Awards (Practical Examination):
  - (a) The external awards should be supplied by the Head/Principal of the Department/Colleges/Institute according to the schedule of Practical Examinations
  - (b) Thereafter, late fee of Rs. 25/- per student per paper shall be charged from the Department/College/Institute concerned within 30 days after the practical examinations. This penalty/late fee shall not be charged from the student by the Department/College/Institute.
  - (c) No External Awards shall be entertained by the University if the same are received in the University after 30 days of schedule of Practical Examination and after declaration of results. However, the Controller of Examinations may condone the delay on merit of each case to accept such awards, with late fee of Rs.100/- per student per paper from the concerned Department/College/Institute before next examination. This penalty/late fee shall not be charged from the student by the Department/College/Institute

7. The Head of the Department/Principal will preserve the records on the basis of which the internal assessment awards have been prepared for inspection, if needed by the University upto four months from the date of declaration of the semester examination results.
