VENUE : DEPARTMENT OF STATISTICS

The Prof. Sat Gupta, Head, Department of Mathematics & Statistics, the University of North Carolina at Greensboro, USA is visiting to the Department of Statistics M.D. University, Rohtak on 3rd & 4th January, 2020 for some academic interaction with the Research Scholars and Faculty members. He has agreed to deliver Lectures on the topics "PRACTICING STATISTICS" & "PUBLISHING JOURNAL ARTICLES-AN EDITORS PERSPECTIVE" on 04.01.2020 at 10:00 am onwards. As Statistical consultancy is very interesting field and it offers great opportunities for the consultant and equally great rewards for the consultee. There are many legal and ethical challenges that come up when representing a client in court cases or in front of regulatory agencies. Hence, these lectures will be beneficial for the students, research scholars and faculty members of the University in general as well as of the Department Statistics and so all of them are cordially invited to attend these lectures on the given date and time.
