Sub. :- Judgement passed by Hon'ble Supreme Court of India in the Civil Appeal No. 364 of 2005 filed by AICTE regarding regulation of Architectural Education in the country – reg.

Dear Sir/Madam,

It is informed to all concerned that the Hon'ble Supreme Court, vide order dated 08.11.2019 in the Civil Appeal No. 364 of 2005 filed by AICTE, has held that all the educational institutions in the field of architecture would have to follow the Norms and Regulations prescribed by the Council of Architecture. The Hon'ble Supreme Court also upheld the judgment dated 08.09.2004 of the Hon'ble Bombay High Court forming subject matter of Appeal No.364 of 2005 and dismissed the appeal of the AICTE.

The Hon'ble Supreme Court held that "We accordingly hold that so far as recognition of degrees and diplomas of architecture education is concerned, the 1972 Act shall prevail. AICTE will not be entitled to impose any regulatory measure in connection with the degrees and diplomas in the subject of architecture. Norms and Regulations set by CoA and other specified authorities under the 1972 Act would have to be followed by an institution imparting education for degrees and diplomas in architecture." The Hon'ble Court made it clear that the AICTE would not have any regulatory control over the concerned institution so far as architecture education is concerned.

A copy of the judgement delivered by the Hon'ble Supreme Court is attached herewith for your kind information and records and for initiating necessary action at your end.

Thanking you,

Yours faithfully,

R.K. Oberoi
Registrar
