Ex-MP resigns, Shimla-Narkanda NH leadership dic

PRABHKA CHAUHAN

SHIMLA, NOVEMBER 23

A day before the crucial Core Group and State Executive meeting, state BJP vice-president and former Raja Sabha member Kripal Parmar today resigned from the party post, "criticising the party leadership's attitude 'dictatorial'."

Parmar, considered close to national BJP president Jagat Prakash Nadda, was denied ticket for the Assembly by-poll from Fatehpur in Kangra held last month even though he was the party's candidate in 2017 assembly poll. Without mincing words, Parmar said that senior party leaders like him were feeling humiliated in the present party set-up.

"I tried raising these issues at the party forum

"A lot of work has been done in Shimla through the Smart City Mission and AMRUT mission. Attaining the top rank in sustainable development goals is a big feat for the city," said Urban Development Minister Suresh Bhard-

waj. The minister said efforts would be made to ensure that Shimla stays on the top. "Shimla has received 75.5 points out of 100 in the survey," the minister added.

The top 10 cities in the survey are Shimla, Coimbatore, Chandigarh, Thiruvananthapuram, Kochi, Panaji, Pune, Tiruchirappalli, Ahmedabad and Nagpur. -- TNS
