

Maharshi Dayanand University Rohtak

Department of Zoology

Department of Zoology of M. D. University welcomed the newly admitted students in the induction program organised on line on 23.12.2020.

Prof. Minakshi Sharma, HOD, Zoology welcomed and congratulated the newly admitted students in the department. She presented online the overview and functioning of the Department and acquainted the students about the academics and research activities of the Zoology Department. Thereafter she encouraged the students to participate actively in all types of activities. Prof. Vineeta Shukla motivated the students to be punctual, and focused towards studies for better academics achievements. Dr Vinay Malik informed about the activities of the placement cell and its role in skill development and communication skills for Job avenues. Dr Sudhir K Kataria addressed the students about the importance and assistance of the alumni. Dr Sudesh Rani, the DLC coordinator of the department gave valuable tips about joining of online classes besides sharing and making use of various e-resources provided by the University, she also described the functioning of SC/ST cell besides various fellowships awarded to all students. Dr Ranjana Jaiwal highlighted the working of IQAC cell on various aspects related to NAAC. The induction program was attended online by all the faculty members and research scholars of the department.

