HOW THE CONS OPERATED

Cars picked up: Two drivers working with a door-to-door service company picked up cars for servicing from customers.

Go to pit garage: Before dropping off the cars, they used to take the vehicles to a private garage.

> With the help of an accomplice, they replaced original parts of the cars with cheaper ones. The cars were then delivered to customers.

Sale of stolen parts: The cons sold the original parts to the garage owner, who was now absconding.

Gurgaon: Three people, including two drivers, who were working with a doorstep car service company have been arrested for allegedly replacing parts of vehicles.

The trio has been identified as drivers Vijay Pal and Krishna and one Rajesh Kumar. Police said the trio replaced parts of nearly 100 vehicles in the last six months.

According to the police, the manager of the company—Tushar Thakkar—filed a complaint on July 23 stating that because of the two "corrupt" drivers, they had to pay a claim of Rs 5 lakh to a customer.
