COURT RESTRICTS CONSTRUCTION ON VIZAG HILL TILL HC TAKES CALL

SC sets aside NGT order, says tribunals subordinate to HC

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
NEW DELHI, JUNE 1

TAKING NOTE of apprehensions of irreversible damage to Rushikonda hills in Andhra Pradesh's Visakhapatnam due to excavations for a tourism project, the Supreme Court on Wednesday directed that the construction be restricted to the area where a now-demolished resort stood and the flat areas until the state High Court, where the dispute is pending, takes a fresh call.

A bench of Justices B R Gavai and Nima Kohli said although development activities are necessary for economic development, it is equally necessary to safeguard the environment.

The court set aside the May 6 order of the principal bench of the National Green Tribunal (NGT), which had halted all further constructions at the project site.

The bench pointed out that the matter was also pending before the HC, in which case, it said, the HC's orders would prevail over those passed by the Tribunal. The court also expressed its displeasure over NGT entertaining the matter when HC was already seized of it. "In so far as Tribunals are concerned, they would be subordinate to the High Court in so far as territorial jurisdiction is concerned," the top court said. The court said it is of the "considered view that it was not appropriate on part of NGT to have continued with proceedings before it, specifically when it was pointed to it that HC was already seized of the matter and had passed order".

The top court said "conflicting orders passed by NGT and High Court could lead to an anomalous situation".

"In such a situation, it is orders passed by the Constitutional courts which would prevail over orders passed by Tribunals," the bench pointed out.

Aligarh college p... over offering namaz

AMIL BHATNAGAR
ALIGARH, JUNE 1

A PROFESSOR posted at an Aligarh college was sent on leave for offering namaz in an open space on the educational institute's campus.

Officials said a video emerged on social media a few days ago in which Prof SR Khalid is seen offering prayers in a garden at Shri Varshney College.

Soon after the video went viral, right-wing organisations, including BJP Yuva Morcha, lodged protest against the professor and the college. The video was brought to the notice of the college authorities and an inquiry committee was set up.
