Low yield leaves commission agents dejected

Group were warning of a necessary action. The police with the help of CCTV footage nabbed both accused from Delhi on Saturday. The police said the accused would be produced in court to seek their custody. Earlier, Sehgal, in the police complaint, had said before the firing incident, he was threatened by a gangster. Girdhy Bhanu was WhatsApp call that came from Canada. The victim had allegedly demanded 50 per cent stake in his liquor business. Sehgal stated in the complaint, Sehgal was business partner of Thakran brothers, who were shot dead on February 25. Police suspects ongoing Girdhoni and Kanustal gang rivalry behind the firing incident. "Both accused have criminal record and they wanted to establish their identity," said Preet Pal Singh Sangwan, ACP (Crime).

One shot, three injured in Yamunanagar attack

TRIBUNE NEWS SERVICE

ZARUNAWAGAR, APRIL 16
A man was killed and three injured when 15 to 16 persons allegedly opened fire on them owing to an old enmity in Jagadhri, Yamunanagar on Saturday.
The deceased Janu Valmiki of Chumna Bhatti Colony, Yamunanagar, along with his friends, Rajat Kaushal of City Centre, Yamunanagar, Anmol of Ludhiana and Mohit Sharma of Vishwakarma Mohalla, Yamunanagar, were returning from a marriage when they were attacked. Rajat, Anmol

In his complaint to the police Mohit Sharma said he, Janu, Rajat along with other friends, Bobi, Akash alias Shanu and Bittu, went to attend the marriage of Ronak Kaira at a resort in Jagadhri on Friday night. At about 12.45am when they were boarding their car for the return journey, around 15 to 16 persons opened fire on them. The attackers included Manoj of Banta Nagar, Sachin Pandit of Sudhahi village and Sumet of Unbert village. They lifted the blockade after DSP Blaspar Ashish Chaudhry assured them that several teams have been formed and the accused will be arrested soon. It is alleged that there was an old enmity between Sachin Pandit and Janu Valmiki and they had lodged criminal cases against each other in the past.

A case against Manoj of Banta Nagar, Sachin Pandit of Sudhahi village, Sumet of Unbert village and other unknown persons under various Sections of the IPC and the Arms Act and the SCST (Prevention of Atrocities) Act has been registered at police station, Sector 17, in Jagadhri.
