Gurgaon: A fruit vendor allegorically turned mobile phone snatcher after losing his sole source of livelihood during the lockdown. According to police, Abid moved Gurgaon a few years back in the hope of a better income, but the pandemic and ensuing lockdown cut short his dream.

Abid, who is in his 30s, was selling fruits in Meerut when someone advised him to move to Gurgaon.

'Can't tolerate suppression of religious freedom'

SGPC chief writes to Karnataka CM opposing objection to wearing turban

SPECIAL CORRESPONDENT
CHANDIGARH

The Shiromani Gurdwara Parbandhak Committee (SGPC), the body responsible for the management of gurd-

"The questions are being raised on the turban of Sikhs in India, where turban-wearing Sikhs have served as the President, Prime Minister, Chief Justice and Army Chief. Sikhs all over the world wear a turban and are working on various top positions, whereas, in their own country India, turbans are being challenged," the letter adds.

The SGPC president has also demanded the intervention of Prime Minister Narendra Modi in the matter. He said that the Sikh community would never tolerate any act of suppression of their religious freedom and they would strongly oppose it.

Odisha conman with many wives proves tough nut to crack

Fearing stigma, women reluctant to register a formal plaint

SATYASUNDAR BARIK
BHUBANESWAR

The Odisha conman accused of duping women across the country by luring them into fraudulent marriages is giving interrogators a tough time. After Ramesh Chandra Swain's five days of police remand came to end on Thursday, the city police pleaded for another seven days of remand to confront victims with the trickster, whose frauds ranged from marriages to financial cheating and quackery to shady real estate deals.

Swain, who hails from Singhalo village in Kendrapara district, went by the aliases of Dr. Bijayshree Ramesh Kumar, Dr. Bidhu Prakash Swain, and Dr. Ramani Rangan Swain.

"The man is not revealing anything. When we confront him with the victims of his frauds, only then he is reluctantly admitting to some of the crimes. Now, not many women are showing interest in nailing him through formal registration of case. Victims are probably afraid of losing social respect," said Umashankar Dash, Deputy Commissioner of Police, Bhubaneswar.

"A dedicated group of officers need to carry on sustained interrogation to unravel his crimes," Mr. Dash said.

The conman assumed many identities and operated in different States. Police of other States may have recorded his crime with a misspelt name, which has made it difficult to find his past records from the Crime and Criminal Tracking Network and Systems (CCTNS).

From the first round of questioning, city police came to know that Swain was running a racket that includes his some of his family members, who are also con artists. His step-sister, Rasmita Beura, has been arrested, while brother-in-law Ganesh Beura, is absconding. The driver of his car was also a regular member of his marriage party. Over videoconferencing, victims identified his sister as being present at weddings.

According to investigators, his second wife, a doctor with a fertilizer cooperative, is believed to be a part of financial frauds. She has switched off her mobile phones for the past few days.

"A doctor from Assam lodged a formal complaint with the city police, alleging that after marriage, Swain swindled money running into lakhs [of rupees] by stealing her debit card. He also siphoned off ₹12 lakh from her cousin brother on the pretext of ensuring an MBBS seat for his son," said Assistant Commissioner of Police (ACP) Sanjeev Satpathy, a key member of the interrogation team.

In 2019, Swain, with the fake identity of Deputy Director General in the Union Health Ministry, executed a bond with an Ernakulam-based woman Lieutenant Colonel, and defrauded her of ₹23 lakh. He had promised to arrange a medical seat for her daughter.
