New Delhi: The underpass and skywalk on Benito Juarez Marg is likely to be thrown open to the public this month.

"Only finishing touches remain and all civil work has been completed. The date of opening has not been finalised yet, but it is likely to be done within this month," said a Public Works Department

(PWD) official.

The work on the project started in 2015 and was supposed to be completed in April this year. The earlier deadline was March. Now, PWD officials have assured that the work would be completed this month and opened for trials.

Situated in the South Campus of Delhi University, the project will help students who travel on foot to their colleges and accommodations.

PWD OFFICIAL SAYS

The underpass starts from near Springdales School and passes through a number of colleges and the busy Satya Niketan market. It then goes under Durgabai Deshmukh South Campus Metro Station and on the other side of Outer Ring Road.

Currently, the skywalk is being painted after which it will be covered. It is estimated that the 1.6km underpass and the skywalk spanning 670 metres will prove to be beneficial to more than two lakh commuters daily.

Earlier, PWD minister Manish Sisodia had held a review meeting with officials regarding construction of the underpass.

203 new cases, +vity rate 6.4%

Gurgaon: The city on Thursday recorded 203 new Covid cases. The city reported 188 cases on Wednesday. With this, the city's positivity rate rose to 6.4% from 6.1% the day before.

Gurgaon currently has 759 active cases, out of which nine are hospitalised, while the rest are in home isolation. This month so far, the city has added 5,615 Covid cases and one death due to the infection. Gurgaon saw more than 100 cases from April 12-19 and then more than 300 cases till April 22. On April 24, it added more than 300 cases. It saw a decline from May 9 when it added less than 300 cases.

responsibilities, the youth should also think about their responsibility towards the country, towards society, towards the poor. If we worry more about responsibilities, then we will automatically worry about someone's rights," he said.

Elaborating on how it was the Modi government that brought in a strong defence policy, Shah said: "We used to consider foreign policy as defence policy. For years, this country was subjected to covert attacks by our neighbouring countries, terrorists were
