RESOLUTION AND MORE

MAHARASHTRA unit of Congress Monday joined several others in demanding that Rahul Gandhi return as the party president. But the meeting of the PCC general body saw some behind-the-scenes activities. Former CM Prithviraj Chavan wanted to move a small resolution thanking party chief Sonia Gandhi for accepting the request of the leaders (of G-23) who had written to her in August 2020, urging the party should have a full-time president. He told Pradesh Returning Officer M M Pallam Raju through a resolution he wanted to thank Sonia for calling elections for the top post, but Raju was hesitant. Finally, PCC delegates passed only two resolutions: one urging Rahul to take office and a second authorising Congress chief to decide on appointment of the state chief and nominate AICC delegates.

FORMER PUNJAB Chief Minister Captain Amarinder Singh joined BJP on Monday and merged his Punjab Lok Congress, the party he had floated last year before the state Assembly polls, with the saffron party.

Stating that "we have seen the Congress for many years", Amarinder said, "Now it is time to go to a party that is looking after the interests of the country. And that is BJP."

Amarinder's daughter Jai Inder Kaur, who has been politically active of late, and son Raninder Singh, who had contested 2009 Lok Sabha polls from Bathinda and 2012 Assembly elections from Samana, also joined BJP, as did his grandson (Jai Inder Kaur's son) Nirwan Singh, who handled public relations and media affairs for Amarinder during his stint as CM from 2017 until September 2021.

Jai Inder is tipped to make her electoral debut in the 2024 General Election from Patiala,

There was rampant corruption, so I had to order CBI probe: Calcutta HC judge

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
KOLKATA, SEPTEMBER 19

JUSTICE ABHIJIT Gangopadhyay of the Calcutta High Court, who had ordered CBI probe into alleged irregularities in appointment of teachers and non-teaching staff in government schools in West Bengal, on Monday said "rampant corruption took place", and, therefore, he had to order probe by the Central Bureau of Investigation (CBI).

In an interview to a TV news channel, ABP Ananda, the sitting judge said: "There has been rampant corruption, that's why I had to order so many CBI investigations. I had never imagined this in my life." "When I sat to give justice, I could not see corruption... So, I thought who should investigate it. I have enough faith in the police, but they are controlled by different forces. Therefore, I gave it to CBI. I am not saying that CBI is not controlled, but may be less. Maybe, they will reveal something. At that time, I had to see that I have to take very strict action against corruption. Aami toh ekhane boshey chup kore thakbo na (I will not sit here quietly)," he added.

Stating that he is emotional, Justice Gangopadhyay said, "I cannot see tears in the eyes of people. I was also unemployed once. So, I could see the weeping face of the unemployed youth."

Justice Gangopadhyay has ordered 10 investigations by the CBI in connection with the school jobs scam.

On remarks made by Chief Minister Mamata Banerjee's nephew, Abhishek Banerjee, against the judiciary, Justice Gangopadhyay said that he is in favour of "strictest action" against anyone "who points a finger at the judiciary, otherwise people will lose faith in the justice system".

He (Trinamool Congress MP Abhishek Banerjee) once commented on the judiciary. I was not in Kolkata then. I was in Ladakh. Sitting there, I thought I will issue a rule against him. I will summon him. I will take action after that. But back in Kolkata, I found that a petition was filed in the Division Bench in this regard, who did not consider it. They thought he would get extra importance. But, I have a different opinion."

Abhishek Banerjee said that a group of judges has BJP's protection. If I call him to prove it, will he be able to prove it? Otherwise, he should be jailed for three months for lying. Later, he may get me killed, but that doesn't bother me."

In the backdrop of HC ordering CBI probe, the Trinamool MP said on May 28: "I feel ashamed to say that there are one or two people in the judiciary who are in hand in gloves (with Centre)... and are ordering CBI investigation in every case." (WITHINPUTS)
