No funds for upkeep of parks outsourced to Faridabad RWAs

MCF is required to pay maintenance charges in range of ₹2-3 per sq metre

TRIBUNE NEWS SERVICE

FARIDABAD, MARCH 15
Public parks that were outsourced to the residents' welfare associations (RWA) are in poor shape due to lack of funds.

The Municipal Corporation Faridabad (MCF) has handed over 490 out of the 750 public parks in the city to the RWAs of the respective areas. The MCF is required to pay maintenance funds in the range Rs 2-3 per square metre to the RWAs. Even a budget of nearly two crores was earmarked by the civic body for the purpose.

Even 12 months after the allocation, the funds are yet to be released. Ranvir Singh, member of the Sector 9 RWA, said, "The local RWA is responsible for the upkeep of seven parks. The association buys plant saplings, and pays the wages of malis (gardeners) and other staff from its own sources. The issue of fund shortage has been raised on numerous occasions with the authorities concerned, but to no avail," Singh added.

A local resident, Ajay Bahl, said it irritating that the MCF had failed to pay a nominal maintenance charge even when most of the work was being done by the residents. "We pay property and other taxes to the MCF. It is the duty of the civic body to ensure enough funds for the upkeep of the civic infrastructure," he said. Another resident Vishnu Goel said the timely release of the funds had failed due to the failure of the outsourcing policy.

The authorities concerned had also failed to provide funds for the major parks,

Varun Sheokand, a social activist, said, "The Town Park in Sector 12 is one of the largest and most visited public places in the city. It was handed over to a leading industrial association by the Haryana Shahari Vikas Pradhikaran few years back. But the association failed to get funds from the agency and gave up the work."

Revenue official held in ₹2 lakh bribery case

PAIWAJ, MARCH 15

A team of the Anti Corruption Bureau today arrested former Palwal District Revenue Officer (DRO) Sushil Sharma in connection with a bribery case registered in the district October last year.

Sources in the district administration claimed that Sharma's name had surfaced in a case in which the bureau had arrested reader of the Hathin SDM, Dayaram, and an advocate, Vinender, for demanding a bribe of Rs two lakh from a resident of Khaika village, Alim.

The complainant told the bureau that the accused had demanded Rs two lakh for a land record documentation case. As Sharma was hearing the case, his role has been under scanner during the investigation. The ACB had nabbed the reader and the advocate red handed while accepting a sum of Rs 50,000. Sharma was absconding since the registration of the case.

Sharma was produced in the local court, which sent him to one day ACB remand today. — TNS
