

MAHARSHI DAYANAND UNIVERSITY, ROHTAK
CENTRE FOR HARYANA STUDIES

Swaraj Sadan, e-mail: dir.chs@mdurohtak.ac.in

Dated: 13.09.2023

Dear Sir/Madam,

We are pleased to inform you that the Centre for Haryana Studies, in collaboration with the Department of History & Archaeology and Sir Chhotu Ram Chair of Maharshi Dayanand University, Rohtak, is organising a One Day National Seminar on “Sapta-Sindhu: Decoding a Geo-Cultural Identity”, scheduled for 16th September 2023. The concept of Akhaṇḍa Bhārata refers to the integration of all the territories of Sapta-Sindhu into Bhāratvarṣa as Sapta-Sindhu is the soul and conscience of Bhāratvarṣa. The aim of this Seminar is to do brainstorming on as to how the original territories encompassed by the Sapta-Sindhu and Uttarakuru, as visualized in the Vedic literature, be amalgamated into Akhaṇḍa Bhārata. Prof. Kuldeep Chand Agnihotri (Former Vice-Chancellor, Central University of Himachal Pradesh) Director, Haryana Sahitya Academy, Panchkula and Dr. Rajnish Kumar Mishra, Associate Professor, School of Sanskrit and Indic Studies, Jawaharlal Nehru University, New Delhi will deliver lectures as Resource Persons.

Therefore, you are requested to attend the same along with teachers, research scholars and students of your esteemed department on 16.09.2023 from 09.00 a.m. onwards at Seminar Hall of Swaraj Sadan, Maharshi Dayanand University, Rohtak.

With regards,

Yours sincerely,

Jaiveer Singh Dhankhar
Director
Centre For Haryana Studies
M D University, Rohtak