Hansi to Tikri 'padyatra' to strengthen farmers' stir

HANSI, MARCH 17

Palmer and worker unions engaged in the ongoing battle being fought under the aegis of the Samyukt Kisan Morcha (SKM) with the Central government against three farm laws would take out a joint 'padyatra' (foot march) from Hansi to Tikri border to mark the martyrdom day of Bhagat Singh, Sukhdev and Rajguru on March 23. The yatra will be flagged off by Gurjeet Kaur, niece of Shaheed Bhagat Singh in the presence of All India...

TO END ON BHAGAT SINGH'S MARTYRDOM DAY

Shaheed Bhagat Singh's niece Gurjeet Kaur will flag off the 'padyatra' at Hansi on Thursday. The padyatra will end at the Tikri border on March 23 on the martyrdom day of Bhagat Singh, Sukhdev and Rajguru.

Kisan Sabha (AKS) chief Dr Ashok Dhole, Punjab Kisan leader Major Singh Pannuwal, Agriculture Labourers Union national general secretary Dr Vikram Singh and SKM leader Vijay Kishan from Hansi tomorrow (March 18). The yatra would culminate at Tikri on March 23. "The padyatra aims at further strengthening the ongoing farmers' agitation by enhancing public participation in it by making the people aware of the ill-effects of the three farm laws. Hundreds of representatives of various unions and social activists will participate in the padyatra. Similar marches will be taken out from Jind, Mathura (Uttar Pradesh) and Kharkar Kalan (Punjab) to reach Singhu border," said Inderjit...

Singh, vice-president, AKS, while interacting with the media here on Wednesday. Inderjit Singh said that Hansi had been chosen for its historicity with 1850 peasant revolt against unbearable land revenue imposed by the East India Company. The revolutionary ideals of martyrs were equally relevant today as the present day rulers were behaving with the toiling masses not very different from the British imperialism. Three black laws were being imposed while the labour laws were being abolished, he added.

Trade unions back Bharat Bandh call

MUKESH TANDON

Members of trade unions, progressive organisations, students, women and labour organisations, and transport associations on Wednesday decided to support the 'Bharat Bandh' called by the Samyukt Kisan Morcha (SKM) on March 28. They assured the SKM of making the bandh successful. The members of various organisations attended the meeting called by the SKM today for the Bharat Bandh at the Kisan Andolan office in Kundli near the Singhu border today. Various trade unions from the organised and unorganised sectors, traders and arhtya associations, workers' unions including agricultural workers unions, transporters' associations, teachers' associations, youth and students associations and others took part in the meeting. Several organisations also committed to mobilise thousands of people at the protest sites, at a time when the protesting farmers would have to attend to wheat...

Indri civic body accountant held for 'taking' bribe

TRIBUNE NEWS SERVICE

A team of the State Vigilance Bureau has arrested an accountant of the Indri Municipal Committee for allegedly accepting a bribe of Rs 10,000 for getting the services of a contractual sanitary inspector V.K. Patil regularised. The accused, Harveen Kumar, was arrested in Indri. He had demanded Rs 20,000 but the deal was finalised for Rs 10,000.

Sought money for regularisation of sanitary inspectors' job was finalised for Rs 10,000.

"We got a complaint from Vikas Pal that the accountant was demanding bribe. We formed a team and arrested the accountant," said Inspector Jagat Singh. He added that the accountant had been booked under various sections of the Prevention of Corruption Act. The sanitary inspector is the son of a BJP leader of Ambala, Mahendra Pal Tomar.

Suspecting murder, youth's kin block Shahzadpur road

TRIBUNE NEWS SERVICE

Demand arrest of six persons booked by police on the face, chest and neck. His damaged mobile phone was also lying there. Anil had a dispute with the family of Sajjan Singh, and some men hired by the latter had thrashed him two years ago. However, both families resolved the matter at their own level. Now, they came to know that he was chatting with a girl of the same village on WhatsApp. Anil's family suspects that he was murdered by Rishi, Manish, Shanky, Gearty, Chanda, and another youth (son of Pal) due to an old enmity and his Whatsapp chatting with the girl. The case was registered under Sections 148, 149, 201 and 302 of IPC at Shahzadpur police station. The road was blocked for nearly two hours. Later, Ambala SP Hamid Akhtar managed to pacify the agitated family members. DSP Naraingram, Anil Kumar, said, "The family suspected the involvement of some people of the same village and we are...
